The following is the report of the egg-laying contest of the Colchester Beys and Girls Poultry club, division E. The contestants have pens of five pullets:

Bishop Brewster took as his text the words "He that is not with me is against me." from Matt. xil-30, and spoke of the possibility of neutrality at the present time in regards to wardly and Godly conditions. No man can serve two masters and God should be given love, service and sac-rifice must be endured in order to car-ry our the standard of loyalty the hurch expects, in order that all mem-ters small be children of God and heir of Heaven.
